

Covered under Rule 29

SCE installs, owns, and maintains

- Equipment on the utility-side of the meter
- Planning, design, and engineering
- Installation of all electrical distribution infrastructure and protective structures.
- Materials (service wire, conduit, etc.)
- Trenching and excavation
- Permitting, rights check, and easements
- Civil work
- Customer pays for (if applicable) any environmental studies & remediation

Customer installs, owns, and maintains

- Facilities relocations and rearrangements
- Materials (service wire, conduit, etc.)
- Overhead (OH) to Underground (UG) conversions (Unless required or otherwise the most cost-effective design)
- Customer is responsible for all costs for charging equipment on customer-side of meter:
 - Including cost to plan, design, install, own, maintain, and operate facilities and equipment
- Customer pays for (if applicable) any environmental studies and remediation